A Specific Against Colds.

"If there is such a thing as a specific against colds, it is to be found in the sleeping porch or the open bed room. Next to that comes the cold sponge bath in the morning," says the Youths Companion. Be as careful as you can you will occasionally take cold and when you do you will find Chamberlain's Cough Remedy a great help in enabling you to get rid of it. Try it. Obtainable everywhere. Adv.

Registration Notice.

Books for the registration of voters are now open at my office at Opperman's harness store. If you have moved since the last election, or if you did not vote at the last election you will have to register to be entitled to vote at the coming election. Books will be open daily except Sunday from now until Friday, March 26, 1915, and the last three days before closing they will be open until 10 p. m. each evening.
M. D. Opperman, City Clerk.

Loosen Up.

Do you want to see a wave of prosperity strike this community and push everything along in front of it?

Then open your wallet and Loosen Up!

Don't content yourself with telling the Other Fellow to do it, but Do It Yourself.

Imagination plays a mighty big part in our scheme of life, and to a very large extent we have been afflicted in late months with an aggravated case of imaginationitis.

Some one got out in the street and yelled "hard times," and immediately the cry was taken up and handed from lip to lip until it really began to assume a semblance of truth.

And then everybody commenced to tighten the strings to their purses; pennies and dollars were herded and withdrawn from circulation; buying lagged, and apprehension stalked abroad.

People imagined we were in the midst of hard times.

The fact that the community held just as much money as ever before was entirely overlooked.

The fact that exports, with the possible exception of cotton in southern states, was as heavy as before, was also forgotten.

Money continued to come into the community from outside sources, but it was promptly hidden away instead of being placed in circulation through the usual business channels.

Pessimists barked on every corner, calamity howlers were in their element, and even sane men commenced to worry.

And all because some fellow opened his mouth and yelled "hard times."

But let's put an end to the farce.

Let's do our spring buying early—let's do much of it now; let's pull our money out of its hiding places and put it to work where it will be of use to ourselves and to the community.

And let's buy our goods from our home merchants, from those who have borne the brunt of the so-called hard times—from people we know and whom we know we can trust.

Let's trot out Old Man Prosperity and give him the front seat, and then let's all go to work and keep him there.

Imagination has been worked to a frazzle.

Now let's have a dose of common sense, and the imaginary malady will soon cease to exist. Let's loosen up.
